

Illuminar

As the year ends and December begins, we're grateful for the growth of the TU CASA students and the connections they have made. This month offers a time for reflection and celebration, with exciting updates as we wrap up the year.

Thank you for being part of our community. Wishing you a joyful and peaceful end to the year!

What's in this month's issue:

- Internships
- Financial Literacy Project
- Student Worker Spotlight
- Looking for local businesses
- December University Closure
- Campus involvement

Internships

As the semester comes to a close, TU CASA students reflect on their incredible internship experiences. From hands-on learning to building valuable connections, they've gained insights that will shape their futures. Here's to the hard work, dedication, and growth that marked this journey!

Financial Literacy Project

In our recent Financial Literacy project, students budgeted, shopped, and prepared a meal. They then shared their experience, including the items they bought and the recipe they created—practicing essential skills in budgeting and meal planning.

Local Businesses Wanted

Looking for local businesses who are interested in offering paid or unpaid internships to our students.

Campus Involvement

We are thrilled to celebrate Patricia, our Student Worker Success Coach, as she reaches an exciting milestone—graduating this year! Having been an incredible part of our community for nearly two and a half years, Patricia's dedication and hard work have made a lasting impact. We are so proud of all her accomplishments and can't wait to see what the future holds for her!

December Holiday Closure Announcement

As the fall semester comes to a close, please note that TU CASA and University offices will be closed for winter break from December 23, 2024, to January 1, 2025. Normal business hours will resume on January 2, 2025. We wish everyone a restful and joyful holiday season!

The TU CASA AmigXs Club hosted a fantastic end-of-semester social and recruitment event! Students gathered to connect with classmates, celebrate their accomplishments, and recruit new members into the organization.
